

The Diversity Center of Northeast Ohio
Presents the Educator Series:

Count Me In: Diversity, Multiculturalism, and Inclusion in Education

REGISTRATION DEADLINE

Friday, November 9
$50 per participant

INTERESTED IN CEUs?

The following CEUs will be offered through
John Carroll's Office of Continuing Education for $25 each

Counseling
Social Worker
Marriage Family Therapist
Psychologist

Monday, November 12 5:00pm-8:30pm

John Carroll University
Lombardo Student Center
20700 North Park Blvd.
University Heights, Ohio 44118

About Count Me In

Northeast Ohio educators and youth-serving professionals are invited to participate in an innovative workshop that will inform participants about the newest research in multicultural and inclusive learning. Participants will have the opportunity to engage in activities and discussions about diversity and obtain skills and strategies to create more equitable learning environments.

Disability & Education: Exploring Attitudes, Labels, and Access

Featuring Panelists and Workshop Presenters:

Youth Advocate Panelists

Donna Prease

Maximum Accessible Housing Organization, Board Member

Beth Thompson, MSSA

Milestones Autism Organization, Teen/Adult Services Coordinator

Please visit www.diversitycenterneo.org for registration information. Call (216) 752-3000 or e-mail programs@diversitycenterneo.org with questions.

Thank you to our Program Sponsor

Life-Long Strategies for Success

Thank you to our Partner

Thank you to our Host Partner

The Diversity Center is a human relations organization dedicated to eliminating bias, bigotry, and racism through education and training.