

SPONSORED BY THE
OHIO COALITION FOR THE EDUCATION OF CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

This presentation will address Ohio's "zero tolerance" policy and how it contributes to the "school-to-prison pipeline," the disciplinary protections available to both regular education and special education students, along with what to do if you suspect a student needs special education services. The presenters will also talk about the education practice at The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland and will engage in discussion and questions from the participants.

October 10, 2012

Double Tree by Hilton
6200 Quarry Lane
Independence, OH 44131

6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

"Beyond Zero-Tolerance: Approaching School
Discipline from a Special Education and Student Rights Perspective"

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

or call 800-374-2806 and ask for Jane.

Click Here for Map and Directions

Visit our website at www.ocecd.org

CEUs are not available as first advertised

Photo: texaszerotolerance.com

FREE CONFERENCE WITH ATTORNEYS
KATIE FELDMAN AND SHELLY ANARADO OKERE!

Katie Feldman is an attorney with the Community Advocacy Program (CAP), a medical legal partnership between The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland and MetroHealth Medical Center. Her practice focuses on legal issues that create a barrier to children's health, including special education, housing, and public benefits work. Prior to joining CAP, Katie represented homeowners in foreclosure actions through The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland's Consumer Practice Group.

Shelly Okere is a staff attorney with the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland's Community Advocacy Program (CAP), a medical-legal partnership with MetroHealth Medical Center in Cleveland, Ohio. Shelly's legal practice focuses on providing high-quality free legal assistance to low income clients and removing legal barriers to health of children and families through representation in special education, school discipline, family law, housing, and public benefits.

Certificate of Attendance with Contact Hours will be available