

Join us for our Autism Awareness Month Webinars!

In celebration of Autism Awareness month, the Autism NOW Center will be offering two brand new webinars! As the National Autism Resource & Information Center, we work year round to promote awareness and educate the public about key issues that affect individuals with autism and their families. Join us for our upcoming webinars in April as we focus on emergency preparedness and transportation!

Transportation Options and Accommodations for Individuals with Disabilities

Time: Tuesday, April 30, 2013, from 2:00 to 3:30 PM EST

Krystian Boreyko of Easter Seals Project ACTION joins Co-Director Amy Goodman for this webinar to discuss the various transportation options that are available to individuals with autism and other developmental disabilities! Presenters will discuss regulations that protect the rights of people with disabilities including the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Air Carrier Access Act; accommodations that are offered to individuals who use public transportation, aircrafts and other modes of transportation; issues regarding touch and personal space; the process of obtaining a driver's license and more!

Speakers:

The Autism NOW Center is a project funded by the Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and a national initiative of The Arc. The Center gathers, organizes, and disseminates readily accessible, high-quality resources and information related to community-based services that support independent living and self-determination, treatment protocols that promote community-based experiences, and evidence-based interventions. As part of this mission, The Autism NOW Center hosts free quarterly webinars on selected Tuesday from 2:00 to 3:30 pm (EST). Designed for self-advocates, families, professionals, and the general public, these webinars encompass a wide variety of topics and practices in the area of autism spectrum disorders (ASD) and other developmental disabilities. For any further questions regarding these webinars, for more information on The Autism NOW Center, or for technical assistance, please contact Phuong Nguyen at pnguyen@autismnow.org.
