

The Dancing Wheels Company & School in conjunction with the IngenuityFest presents the first annual...

Arts for All Parade!

1:00 p.m. Saturday, October 3, at IngenuityFest 2015!

Line-up starting at noon - in the municipal lot, west of the Science Center glass walkway (near the Mather Ship)

We Love a Parade... and Invite YOU to Come Along!

We thought there is no better way to celebrate two iconic occasions, the Dancing Wheels' 35th anniversary and the 25th anniversary of the ADA, than an inclusive parade! The parade will commence at the Science Center and wrap up at the festival site - from the Rock Hall to Northcoast Harbor.

We welcome all genres of artists and arts enthusiasts of all ages and abilities. Join us in costume or in regalia that represents your artform and feel free to create visual displays with balloons, puppets, flags, drums or whatever you can imagine!
