

Save The Date to Join us for a Community Conversation on: “Law Enforcement, the Justice System and People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities”

Thursday, April 26, 2018
10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

North Royalton, Cuyahoga Public Library
5071 Wallings Rd, North Royalton, OH 44133

In our last conversation, participants expressed concerns for individuals with developmental disabilities and their interactions with the justice system.

We would like to continue to get input, foster more dialogue on this topic, and share a related project recently launched in Northeast Ohio called Pathways to Justice (PTJ).

All families and stakeholders are welcome to attend!

Agenda

10:00am - 10:30am	Introduce PTJ Project, NE Ohio PTJ Team
10:30am - 11:30am	Breakout Conversations - Interactions with Law Enforcement and the Justice System: Experiences, Fears, Challenges and Solutions
11:30am - 12:00pm	Share ideas with larger group

Event Questions: Celia Schloemer
celia.schloemer@cchmc.org or 513-636-4723

More About The National CoP
supportstofamilies.org